WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF HERRON STUDENTS?

Student scholarships shape the future of artistic vision and creative activity in the world around us and serve as a powerful tool in attracting the most promising and diverse students to Herron. Thanks to our generous donors, $241,000 will be awarded this year to Herron’s students—selected by donor criteria with preference given to undergraduate or graduate students, financial need, outstanding talent, minority status and international study.

Interested in creating a named or program-specific scholarship in honor of someone special, or maybe in your own name? Scholarships of $1,000 or more can be awarded on an annual basis or a permanent endowment can be pledged over multiple years and can exist in perpetuity. Scholarships may also be established through a provision in your estate plans.

Currently, during the Indiana University’s “For All” Bicentennial Campaign, there are matching dollars available for new, endowed scholarships—thus doubling the impact of your support.

The stories behind Herron’s scholarships are as unique as the donors who make them a reality. Won’t you consider sharing your story by supporting a scholarship? Contact Herron’s Office of Development to learn more or visit herron.iupui.edu.
